

INVESTIGATING SECTOR-SPECIFIC ROLES AND OCCUPATIONAL CATEGORIES IN RESEARCH AND DEVELOPMENT

Business enterprise sector showed consistent growth from 146,970 in 2016 to 178,690 in 2020.

Total performing sectors experienced an overall increase, reaching 276,640 in 2020.

Business Enterprises employ the highest number of researchers (117,630), technicians (37,160), and support staff (14,800), while Higher Education institutes have the most researchers (65,330) and Private Non-Profits have a smaller but diverse research team

1. The "On-site research consultants" category does not provide data for the federal, provincial, higher education, and private non-profit sectors.
2. The "Total sciences" and "Canada" under "Type of science" and "Geography" respectively do not have associated data